

2013 Reed City High School Distinguished Alumnus

Paul M. Eichenberg

Paul M. Eichenberg

Vice President, Corporate Development, Magna International

<http://www.magna.com/capabilities/powertrain-systems>

- Reed City High School Graduate 1988
- Graduate Ferris State University 1992-Bachelor's Degree Plastics Engineering
 - Masters of Business Administration-University of Detroit Mercy
- Post Graduate Work: Oxford University in Oxford England, Institute of Higher Business Studies in Barcelona, Spain, Penn State University, Michigan State University, University of Notre Dame, University of Michigan, and Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University.
 - Began his work career at: Excel Industries
 - Moved to PPG Industries in 1999
 - Joined Magna International in 2004
 - Became Vice President of Corporate Development for Magna Powertrain, North and South America in 2006 –A 3 Billion Dollar Manufacture
- Currently the Global Vice President of Corporate Development and Strategic Planning for Magna International/Magna Powertrain
- Mr. Eichenberg describes himself as a “small-town boy” who considers his time at Ferris as the catalyst for a career that has led to worldwide travel. He currently sits on the Ferris Foundation Board of Directors
- Mr. Eichenberg has also shared “Never in my wildest dreams did I think I would be Where I Am Today.
- Mr. Eichenberg lives in Novi Michigan with his wife Mindy, an elementary school teacher, and their son, Samuel.