

Chelsea Guzikowski was born in Big Rapids, and grew up in Reed City. She attended the Reed City Public Schools K through 12, graduating with the Reed City High School Class of 2009.

While at Reed City she was active in sports, having been a starter in Basketball, Volleyball, and Track. She was a finalist for the State of Michigan as an Academic Athlete, and the Detroit Free Press honor roll for Academic Athlete. While running track her 400x200 meter relay team broke a Reed City record at the State Finals, and her name can be found on a wall plaque in the High School Gym. She feels that participating in sports makes for a well-rounded student, but the achievement she is most proud of is being named the Valedictorian of the 2009 Reed City High School, with a 4.0 GPA.

Upon High School graduation, Chelsea received a full Academic scholarship to attend Olivet College. She attended Olivet from September 2009 to December 2012. While at Olivet she played volleyball and participated in track and field. She graduated from Olivet Magna Cum Laude in Biology with a Pre-Medicine concentration.

After graduation, Chelsea then moved to Chicago, Illinois where she began her work as a Medical Assistant for Lakeview Dermatology. From that job, she applied to Grand Valley State University to study to become a Physician's Assistant. She was accepted into their program in 2014, with a partial tuition scholarship. Along with her very intensive studies at Olivet, she also did her hospital rotations at different hospitals throughout Michigan and Illinois. Chelsea then passed her State Boards, and graduated from Physician Assistant school in December of 2016 as a P.A.-C.

Upon becoming a P.A.-C she was offered 3 different positions as a P.A., and decided that 'Home is Where the Heart Is', and she accepted the position of Family Practice at Reed City Family Practice Spectrum Health, where she is currently employed.

Chelsea is the daughter of Darlene Wagberg, who taught in the elementary grades for 33 years in Reed City before retiring a year ago.

Chelsea now resides in Sparta, Michigan and will be getting married this July in Ann Arbor to Alec Snavley of Big Rapids.
